

Classe V AET

Docente: Paola Butori

Dal testo CULT B2

Grammatica e letture.

Grammar:

- Unit 9: Second Conditional
- “ Third Conditional
- “ Mixed Conditionals
- “ I wish/If only
- “ Should have + past participle for regrets
- Unit 10: Reported speech (statements, questions, commands and requests)
- “ Have/Get something done

Topics and articles:

Unit 9: War and the atomic bomb.

- Hiroshima and Nagasaki, pg. 204
- George W. Bush and the war against Iraq, pg.205
- On September 11 2011, Lucky Escape, pg. 206
- President Truman and the conclusion of World War Two, pg. 210-211
- No More Vietnams, pg. 246
- Remembering Pearl Harbor, pg. 268
- Approfondimento in fotocopia: An Awesome Power is Locked inside the Nucleus of an Atom

Unit 10: The Environment.

- Earth Day, pg.
- The shipwreck survivor Wang Bohai, pg. 223
- How to live a green life, pg.226
- Loss of biodiversity, pg. 228-229
- Cowspiracy, pg. 242-243
- Uncontacted Tribes, pg. 244-245
- Rice to Power, pg. 269

Dal testo English for New Technology, di Kieran O'Malley, Pearson/Longman:

- Unit 4, Generating Electricity, svolta completamente.
- Unit 5, Distributing Electricity:
 - The Distribution Grid
 - The Transformer
 - The Domestic Circuit

- Edison, Tesla and the AC/DC battle
- Managing the power supply
- Creating a Smart Grid
- Powergen
- Innovative Energy generation
- Innovative ideas for generating electricity (su questo punto alcuni studenti hanno svolto ricerche che fanno parte del loro portfolio personale)

Approfondimento: The Vajont Dam

Unit 9: Automation, svolta completamente tranne” The end of the air traffic controller?”
(approfondimenti in fotocopia su Industrial Revolution)

La maggior parte degli studenti ha svolto approfondimenti e ricerche personali, soprattutto sul tema dell’ambiente e delle energie rinnovabili, che fanno parte del loro portfolio individuale.